Privacy Policy for Foxash Walking Football Club

Foxash Walking Football Club treats the privacy of its members and website users very seriously and we take appropriate measures to safeguard your privacy. This Policy explains how we protect and manage personal data you share with us and that we hold about you, including how we collect, process and share that data.

What personal data we hold on you.

Personal data means any information about an individual from which that individual can be identified. We collect, use, store and transfer some personal data of our participants and other club members.

You provide information about yourself when you register with the Club, and by completing forms at an event or online, or by corresponding with us by phone, email or otherwise.

The information you give us may include your name, date of birth, address, email address, phone number, gender and contact details of a third party in the case of an emergency. We may also ask for relevant health information, which is classed as special category personal data, for the purposes of your health, wellbeing and safeguarding. Where we hold this data it will be with the explicit consent of the member, or, if applicable, the member's parent or guardian.

Where we need to collect personal data to fulfil Club responsibilities and you do not provide that data, we may not be able to honour or administer your membership.

Why we need your personal data.

We will only use personal data for any purpose for which it has been specifically provided.

The reason we need participant's personal data is to be able to run the Walking Football Club and arrange matches; to administer memberships and provide the membership services you are signing up to when you register with the club. Our lawful basis for processing your personal data is that we have a contractual obligation to you as a member to provide the services you are registering for.

Set out below in table format is a description of the ways we plan to use your personal data, and which of the legal bases we rely on to do so. We have also identified what our legitimate interests are where appropriate.

Purpose/Processing Activity	Lawful Basis for Processing under Article 6 of GDPR
Processing Membership Forms and Payments/Subs	Performance of a contract
Organising Matches	Performance of a contract
Sending out match or Club information and updates	Performance of a contract
Sharing data with Coaches, Managers, or Officials to enter events	Performance of a contract
Sharing data with Leagues we are in	Performance of a contract
Membership of County Associations and competition providers for entry in events	Performance of a contract
Sharing data with Committee Members to provide information about Club activities, Membership renewals or invitation to social events	The Club has a legitimate interest to maintain Member and participant correspondence for Club community purposes
Sharing data with third party service or facility providers	The Club has a legitimate interest to run the organisation efficiently and as it sees fit. Provision of some third party services is for the benefit of the Club and its members
Sharing anonymised data with a funding partner as a condition of grant funding	The Club has a legitimate interest to run the organisation efficiently and as it sees fit. Application for funding is a purpose that benefits the Club and its members

Publishing match and league results	Consent. We will only publish your personal data in a public domain, including images and names, if you have given you consent for us to do so.
To ensure we understand possible health risks	Consent. We will only process details on your medical history with your consent.

Who we share your personal data with.

When you become a member of the Club, your information, if you are a coach or volunteer or another participant may be (depending upon which league(s) your team plays in) entered into the Whole Game System database, which is administered by the FA. We also pass your information to the County FA and to leagues to register participants and the team for matches, tournaments or other events, and for affiliation purposes.

We may share your personal data with selected third parties, suppliers and sub-contractors such as referees, coaches or match organisers. Third party service providers will only process your personal data for specified purposes and in accordance with our instructions.

We may disclose your personal information to third parties to comply with legal obligations; or to protect the rights, property, or safety of our participants, members or affiliates, or others.

The Club's data processing may require your personal data to be transferred outside of the UK. Where the Club does transfer your personal data overseas it is with sufficient appropriate safeguards in place to ensure the security of that personal data.

Protection of your personal data.

We have put in place appropriate security measures to prevent your personal data from being accidentally lost, used or accessed in an unauthorised way, altered or disclosed.

How long we hold your personal data.

We keep personal data on our participants and members while they continue to be a participant or member or are otherwise actively involved with the Club. We will delete this data within one month after a participant or member has left or otherwise ended their membership or affiliation, or sooner if specifically requested and we are able to do so. We may need to retain some personal data for longer for legal or regulatory purposes. The personal data that is stored on the Whole Game System is subject to their privacy policy so we advise you to review that policy together with this notice. If you would like your personal data to be deleted from the Whole Game System then please contact them.

Your rights regarding your personal data.

As a data subject you have the right, at any time, to request access to, rectification or erasure of your personal data; to restrict or object to certain kinds of processing of your personal data, including direct marketing; to the portability of your personal data and to complain to the UK's Data Protection Supervisory Authority, the Information Commissioners Office about the processing of your personal data.

As a data subject you are not obliged to share your personal data with the Club. If you choose not to share your personal data with us we may not be able to register or administer your membership.

We may update this Privacy Notice from time to time, and will inform you of any changes in how we handle your personal data.

If you have any questions about this Privacy Notice then please contact Graham Long.
